

FWOTC TRACKING CLINIC PRESENTED BY SANDY MCMILLAN

Sandy McMillan, of Rochester Illinois, has been involved in the sport of tracking for over 20 years. She is an AKC tracking judge and has put numerous tracking titles on her Labrador Retrievers, along with field and obedience titles as well. She has served as Director of Training for the Capital Canine Training Club in Springfield, Illinois. She is involved in Labrador rescue and the National Labrador Retriever Club, serving as chair for the National event in 2006 and in 2009.

This clinic will focus on reading your dog, handling your dog, and line handling. It is appropriate for all levels of tracking from beginner to those working toward more advanced titles.

Plan to bring your own beverages, snacks, lunch, etc. as FWOTC will not be providing these and, although we will take a short lunch break, we will not be near any restaurants.

There are limited working spots - unlimited audit spots.

COST: Working spots: $50. Audit spots: $30.

There will be no refund on working spots, unless we can fill your spot with another working team.

WHEN: Saturday September 20, 2008

TIME: 8am – 4pm

WHERE: Location to be announced one week prior to clinic, but within the greater Fort Wayne / Auburn area.
